Dods Media Platforms

Dods at Party Conference dialogue will be disseminated through an array of online and print titles which reach into every part of the UK, national governments and public institutions:

PoliticsHome, Total Politics and Holyrood will be reporting all the news as it happens at the Party Conferences, and Dods Monitoring will be providing a special daily conference update. The House and Holyrood magazines' conference specials, packed with exclusive interviews and articles, will all be available free of charge at the individual conferences.

PoliticsHome

ALL TODAY'S POLITICS IN ONE PLACE

PoliticsHome is the most read specialist political news source in Parliament and prides itself on the quality and speed of its coverage. This makes it an indispensable information source for the most influential people in the UK - MPs, Peers, Senior Civil Servants and Westminster journalists - helping to set their agenda for the day. Speak to your account manager about how to get your event featured in PoliticsHome's news bulletin as a key political event of the day, and other promotional opportunities.

THEHOUSE

The House magazine is “Parliament’s own” weekly publication, sent out to every Member of Parliament and Peer. Totally impartial and answerable to a cross-party editorial board, The House carries exclusive high profile interviews and articles from Parliamentarians and policy information. It’s very much the in-house publication for Parliament and, as such, is a hugely effective way to target MPs & Peers, removing any editorial agenda that might exist in other political publications.

Trusted by Parliamentarians of all stripes and read by a hugely influential Westminster market, Total Politics is home to the UK’s leading non-partisan political diary column. Alongside the latest chatter from SW1 and beyond, the site also hosts regular opinion articles from leading commentators across the political spectrum and book reviews by Parliamentarians and others.
