Dods at Party Conference dialogue will be disseminated through an array of online and print titles which reach into every part of the UK, national governments and public institutions:

PoliticsHome and Holyrood will be reporting on all the news as it happens at the Party Conferences, and Dods Monitoring will be providing a special daily conference update. The House and Holyrood magazines' conference specials, packed with exclusive interviews and articles, will all be available free of charge at the individual conferences.

PoliticsHome

ALL TODAY'S POLITICS IN ONE PLACE

PoliticsHome is the most read specialist political news source in Parliament and prides itself on the quality and speed of its coverage. This makes it an indispensable information source for the most influential people in the UK - MPs, Peers, Senior Civil Servants and Westminster journalists - helping to set their agenda for the day. Speak to your account manager about how to get your event featured in PoliticsHome's news bulletin as a key political event of the day, and other promotional opportunities.

THEHOUSE

The House is part of the fabric of Westminster. Founded in 1976 by a cross-party group of MPs, we have spent more than 40 years shining a light in Parliament. Written primarily by Parliamentarians, with an MP as editor and a cross-party editorial board, The House is closer than any other publication to the most powerful people in UK politics. Our print magazine - published when Parliament is in session - is renowned as an impartial source of Westminster news and insight, featuring a mix of exclusive interviews, debates, intel and expert policy analysis.
